

Terms of Business

Introduction: All and any business undertaken by MP-Logistics, the trading name of MP-Logistics Limited (Ireland), (“the Company” or “MP-Logistics”) is transacted subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set out, each of which shall be incorporated or implied in any agreement between the Company and its Clients. In the event of a conflict between these terms and conditions and any other terms and conditions, the former shall prevail unless expressly agreed to the contrary by the Company in writing.

Basis in Law: MP-Logistics is licensed to trade as a Temporary Recruitment and Labour Secondment Agency by the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation in Ireland pursuant to Section 3 of the Employment Agency Act, 1971. MP-Logistics is licensed to trade as a Temporary Recruitment and Labour Secondment Agency by the Ministry of Social Affairs and Employment in the Netherlands (SZW) as well pursuant to the Allocation of Employees by Intermediaries Act (WAADI).

Responsibility and Liability: The Company shall endeavor to ensure the suitability of any Candidate introduced to the Client and to maintain a high standard of service and integrity, but the Company makes no warranty, express or implied, as to the suitability of any Candidate introduced to the Client.

MP-Logistics can accept no liability whatsoever for any loss, damage, costs or expenses, howsoever caused which the Client may suffer, or for which the Client may become liable, as a result of the introduction to the Client or engagement by the Client of a Candidate.

Temporary candidates supplied by MP-Logistics are deemed to be under the direction and control of the Client from the time they report to take up duties and for the duration of the assignment. The Client agrees to be responsible for all acts, errors and omissions be they willful, negligent or otherwise. As though the worker were the direct (posted) driver of the Client, the Client will in all respects comply with all statutes, bye-laws and legal requirements to which the Client is ordinarily subject in respect of the Client's own staff.

The Client undertakes to supervise the temporary worker. If the Client finds the temporary worker unsatisfactory, a complaint must be made by telephone and confirmed in writing within one day of the finding. Suitable action will then be taken, but in any event the Client waives any right to withhold payment.

Temporary Recruitment - Rates: The Client agrees to pay the hourly and daily charge of The Company agreed at the time of booking of the (posted) driver for all hours and days actually worked. Any other expenses as may be agreed shall be itemized on The Company's invoice in addition to this charge. The Company reserves the right to vary the charge on an existing or subsequent assignment with immediate effect subject to prior notification being given to the Client. MP-Logistics will be responsible for the (posted) driver's remuneration deducting PAYE Income Tax, PRSI and USC contributions and accounting to the relevant authorities for these Deductions, A1-forms, E106-forms and registration in Social Welfare.

Employing the Candidate: The Client (or related organization) cannot hire the (posted) drivers directly without the express permission of MP-Logistics.

Timesheets: At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of 1 week or less) the Client shall sign MP-Logistics's timesheet verifying the number of hours worked by the (posted) driver during that week.

Signature of the timesheet by the Client is confirmation of the number of hours worked. If the Client is unable to sign a timesheet produced for authentication by the (posted) driver because the Client disputes the hours claimed, the Client shall inform MP-Logistics as soon as is reasonably practicable and shall co-operate fully and in a timely fashion with MP-Logistics to enable MP-Logistics to establish what hours, if any, were worked by the (posted) driver. Failure to sign the timesheet does not absolve the Client of its obligation to pay the Charges in respect of the hours worked.

Payment Terms: All monies due hereunder shall be paid by the Client as follows:

Temporary Recruitment is billed weekly and payment is due within 14 days of invoice date or the term agreed in the Cooperation Agreement.

All payments, regardless of currency, must equate to the Euro invoice total at date of payment. In the event of non-payment of invoices, the Company may, without prejudice to its other rights, withdraw the (posted) driver with one hour's notice. VAT will be added to all invoices at current rate, except intra community invoices, in which VAT reverse/charge mechanism has been applied.
